

Workshop on strategic plan development for reinforcement and expansion of saving for community prosperity, 3-4 November, 2010

In order to reinforce and expand the activities in support local network of village-based saving groups (local SoSor), CEDAC and FNN organized two day workshop from 3 to 4 November 2010. The workshop was held at CEDAC office in Angtasom, Takeo province. 26 representatives and 14 assistants of the local networks participated in the workshop and 5 staff members of CEDAC and FNN participated in the workshop. The workshop was facilitated by Dr. Yang Saing Koma, (CEDAC president and FNN advisor, Mr. Pan Sopheap (FNN Director) and Mr. Tath Sok (SoSor program coordinator)

The workshop achieved following objectives and outputs:

- Shared the progress of saving associations in 18 districts of 6 provinces
- Review the strength and weakness of the saving association and ideas for future improvement
- Developed five year plan 2011 - 2015 and detailed plan for 2011
- Discussion on the needs and structure and mechanism of the cooperation between local networks and local networks

At the end of the workshop, all participants gain more knowledge about the strategic plan. They will also organize meeting to discuss with their members to refine the 2015 plan. The follow-up meeting will be organized in December to continue the discussion on the formation of the provincial and national saving union. Uploaded by NOY Kimhong
