

Capacity Building Workshop for FNN Provincial Network Leaders in Svay Rieng

SVAY RIENG: From May 26th to the 27th, 2011, FNN organized two capacity building workshops in Chantrea district, Svay Rieng, with funding from CEDAC (FF-PV&SVR Project). The workshop was co-facilitated by Mr. So Saven, the FNN Provincial Network Leader, and Mr. Sean Buntha, the FNN Project Officer. In total, 117 farmers, including 55 women, participated in the workshop. The main topics of both workshops were the establishment of Saving Community for Prosperity (SOSOR), collecting new membership fees for FNN in 2011 and the creation of an institutional fund.

As a result of participation in the workshop, every associations' representatives gained a better understanding of how to lead their own communities towards sustainability and self-reliance. Moreover, they committed to collecting membership fees soon after the workshop.
